LABOR DAY.

How the Workingmen's Holiday Was Observed in the East.

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—"Labor Day" was inaugurated by the workingmen in this city and suburbs to-day, in an imposing manner. A feature of the morning was a procession, in which, it is estimated, 15,000 persons participated.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—The annual street parade in this city, to-day, was the most noteworthy ever held by the labor organizations of Chicago. A close computation puts the number of marchers in line at between 30,000 and 35,000.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 6.—The demonstration of the Knights of Labor to-day was the largest of the kind ever witnessed in Baltimore.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—This being the legal holiday set aside by the Legislature for the laboring classes, it was celebrated by a monster parade by the different labor organizations, followed by a picnic.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 6.—Most of the factories and stores in this city were closed in honor of the Workingmen's Day. Twenty-five thousand workingmen took part in the procession.
